Letters

Dear Seniors:

It's "Anchors Aweigh" for you, the Class of 1950, and time for you to embark over smooth and troubled waters on a most difficult journey on the sea of life. As Captain of the 1950 sailing of your ship, I want to share with you in a small portion of your faith and hope for the future.

On its many journeys may your ship find smooth sailing and may you use understanding, tolerance, patience, wisdom and reverence to help you on your way. Like all journeys "many a stormy wind shall blow" before you reach every port, but you will always find encouragement and safety from the beam of light that shines from the lighthouse of knowledge on the shore.

I am happy to have had a part in your school experiences and wish you "Bon Voyage" with wishes for your quota of happiness, health, achievement and good fortune, and may God bring you safely to the port you have set as your goal.

Sincerely,
Amelia Harding

Dear Seniors:

The "All Ashore" call has been given, and you, the crew, have been briefed by the captain and the mates. Although you can't possibly be conditioned for all the eventualities of the trip, I am sure that you will make proper adjustment to changes in wind and tide, and ride the crest of the waves to a full life.

Sincerely,
Gordon Boddy

To the Seniors of 1950:

As you log the last few voyages in your high school career and as you set forth on the uncharted seas of life, may you find much fair weather sailing. We hope sincerely that your years at Olmsted Falls High School will aid you greatly in selecting and charting your course.

Instead of comparing life to a ship, I have come to regard it more as a group of ships, a fleet, or a task force. For truly life is a task but it is also a force-----a force greater than the atomic bomb.

Because of the education received by young people a generation or two ago, scientists and others have been able to devise a means of splitting the atom. Your task, however, is even greater, that of controlling it.

As you proceed from harbor to harbor I would remind you of some of the ships in your fleet without which life is not very worthwhile. Many of these you have picked up in your experiences at home and at school. All are essential to a good life.

Some of these are such great ships as friendship, sportsmanship and citizenship. Many of you in pursuing your studies have included scholarship--a rare attribute. We hope many of you will be able to add statesmanship to your fleet, because our community, our state and our nation always has room for good leadership.

Last but not least I would remind you that companionship is also quite essential. Some of you think you have already settled that issue, others will add it later. Choose this ship wisely.

Nevertheless, regardless of the size of your force and whatever your task, meet it honorably and firmly, with firm allegiance to the Master of your soul.

Best of luck and smooth sailing!

Sincerely yours,
W. W. Zinser

Football Highlights

We played our first game of the season with Berea (non-league), and although Walter Brooks intercepted a pass and gained 30 yards, we lost the hard-fought contest 14-0. Next we played North Olmsted for our first league game, Bill Kolodey running 53 yards for our only touchdown in the game that ended 33-6. Walter Brooks and Bill Kolodey scored TD's and Jack Hecker kicked 2 extra points to spearhead our 14-6 triumph over Strongsville. In our only other non-league game, we whitewashed Elyria 25-0. Bill Hecker, Bob Rooney, and Bill Kolodey (2) scored the touchdowns, and Jack Hecker kicked one extra point. Westlake turned the tables on us by whipping us 32-6 in our next game. Our score came when Bill Kolodey intercepted a pass and ran 102 yards for a touchdown. We bounced back by beating Brooklyn 6-0 as Bill Kolodey again intercepted a pass and raced 83 yards for our score. Bill Kolodey scored our only TD in the North Royalton game which we lost 14-6. However, this was one of the most exciting games of the season. Allan Guenther intercepted a pass but was unable to score as was the rest of the team as Bay Villiage triumphed 14-0.

Allan Guenther and Bill Kolodey were named to the All-Star team of the west county league and each has received a trophy.

1949-50 Basketball Review

The final curtain of the Olmsted Falls 1949-50 basketball season has fallen. The Bulldogs, having a record of ten wins and nine losses of which seven of the wins and five of the losses were in league games, ended in a third place tie with Brooklyn.

Our first three games ended in defeats. The first two losses were nonleague games with Columbia and Berea. Then North Royalton defeated us with a score of 49-42. Finally our team began to click and we handed Strongsville their first defeat 43-34, and then went on to beat Bay 44-37. Doom struck as we met Westlake and lost by 11 points, 47-36. During the brief pause of Christmas vacation the Bulldogs embarrassed the Alumni 63-41. Our next game was allotted to Brooklyn, but the squad came back to beat our rival North Olmsted 45-30. The next two games were nonleague in which we bowed to Orange but defeated Elyria Catholic. This ended the first half of the season with five victories and six losses.

We began our second half with four victories. North Royalton defeated us and then came a tight game with Strongsville which ended 33-30. Our next win was over Bay and then in a nonleague game, Elyria Catholic was again dismissed. Again came gloom as we met Westlake and the mighty West High. With high hopes our boys met and defeated Brooklyn 54-27 and journeyed on to North Olmsted. Besides the victory in this game there was great excitement when Jack Hecker scored 23 points to break our school's record held by his brother. Jack totaled 315 to top the record Norb had, 309. In the tournaments, which were played at the B. W. Field House, we faced defeat at the hands of Cuyahoga Heights, 31-20.

All through the season our boys had undying spirit which is necessary for any team to be great.

Baseball

The squad this season will welcome back a few regulars which should contribute considerably to our hopes for a season of wins.

Among some of those returning are Don Harder, last year's regular pitcher, Bob Smetana, a terrific backstop, and many other promising boys.

We expect to get spring training into full swing shortly after the close of the basketball season. This will consist of short "pepper" sessions and a gradual warming up of the pitchers.

The competition is going to be keen, but watch our smoke as we get into the swing of things!

Coach Freitas

Back Row: Norman Centers, Ronald Oaklief, George Wheeler, Fred Loepp, Don Smith, Lyle Rayner.
 2nd Row: David Gates, Walter Renton, Bill Hall, Charles Gall, Bill Hecker, Coach Burton.

Track

This year we are looking forward to a very good track season. Most of last year's football players will be out for track or baseball so we should have a good looking team. Among the veterans returning to Varsity are Walter Renton, Bill Hecker, Glenn Weber, Charles Gall, George Lemel, Walt Brooks, Don Harder, Phil Neitenbach, Bill Hall and Bill Rutz.

Most of the school track records were set only five or six years ago. The latest record to be established was in 1948 when Leonard Brooks threw the shot put 39 feet. Dick Bislich holds the most records for Olmsted Falls. Here they are:

100 yard dash	10.5 seconds	1946
Mile run	4:50.5 seconds	1945
880 yard relay	1:35.9 seconds	1944
	(holds record with three others)
Mile relay	4:01.0 seconds	1944
2 mile relay	9:09.0 seconds	1945

George Payne holds four other records for our school:

440 yard dash	56.8 seconds	1945
880 yard run	2:08.0 seconds	1945
Mile relay	4:01.0 seconds	1944
2 mile relay	9:09.0 seconds	1945

This year practice will start soon after the close of basketball season, and we will participate in several track meets this spring. 1950, we hope, will establish many new records for Olmsted Falls.

Ship's Log

SHIP:	O.F.S. '50
UNDER MANAGEMENT OF:	Olmsted Falls Institute of Erudition
DESTINATION:	Isle of Graduation
DATE OF DEPARTURE:	September 6, 1937
TIME OF DEPARTURE:	Two bells
ESTIMATED LENGTH OF VOYAGE:	Twelve years.

The maiden voyage of the "O.F.S. '50" began in September, 1937, with 57 crew members aboard. Little did they realize that only 13 of their original number: Mary Lou Campbell, Bill Hall, Carol Jones, Joan Kaskey, Bill Kolo-dey, Nadine Lingruen, Betty Moyer, Anita Pretko, Ann Schmied, Bill Thompson, Lee Usher, Bob Wendt, and Nancy Woodman, would reach their predestined goal. With Miss Bonar as captain and Miss Cook as first mate, the struggling crew grew accustomed to the life ahead of them. After one year, still a long way from its goal, but with a definite course having been plotted, the ship was put into dry dock for major repairs and the crew was given a three month's shore leave.

The second season was pepped up with two new additions to the bunch, Betty Brazie and June DeVore. This year they were exposed to the dreaded disease, 'reading, 'riting' and 'rithmetic. Unfortunately for Captain Bonar and the new first mate, Miss Bonsey, the crew seemed immune to such pitfalls.

The third year, "Cap" Bonar and "Mate" Bonsey (they got to know them pretty well by now), still thinking they could outlast the crew, tried another trip. Four new workers were shanghaied on board. They were: Anthony Alterici, Shirley Canant, Paul Floreske and Bill Rutz.

They were unable to dock the next year, so, under the supervision of "Cap" Bonsey (Miss Bonar gave up) and First Mate Ballou, they continued without reinforcements, until Allan Guenther, sole survivor of another ship, was taken on board. This happened in the middle of the season.

The fifth year was marked by the boarding of the ship of the famous pirate, Bud Burchard. After keeping him in chains for awhile, he was finally freed and tamed down to routine. Miss Baesel and Mrs. Cherry were co-captains.

As they hoisted the anchor to begin their sixth year's voyage, who should they find hanging of the anchor but Bob Uhle. As there was no alternative but to pull him in, the stowaway was drafted into the crew. Plotting the course that year were Mrs. Williams and Mrs. Cherry.

Well, you must give them credit! They have now semi-circumnavigated (get that word) their course in erudition.

Beginning the second half of the expedition with revived spirits and another hand to polish brass (Carol Agnew), besides being a bit more familiar with the routine of "larnin", they were able to lighten the load of their captains, Miss Baker and Mrs. Williams, by electing Charles Hickey their seventh grade class president. He was formally named "Assistant Captain".

During the eighth season three new map-holders were acquired. They were Honey Klein, Carol McRae, and Ruth Yorkavitz. Mrs. Blake handled the charts this year; she was aided by Bud Burchard.

In the ninth year the old ship, no longer sea-worthy, was abandoned in favor of a new, more streamlined craft that was designed to take them to the Isle of Graduation. The salesman, giving them a good (?) bargain, threw Don Floreske, Chuck Nagy, and Dale Riedel in with the deal. This craft was christened the "O.F.H.S. CLUB 50" by Miss Schoen and Mrs. Blake. This year's "Assistant Captain" was Ruth Yorkavitz.

Man Overboard! The season ended with the tragic loss of Bob Uhle.

By the tenth year, the crew was getting rather tired so Jean Schreiber, Bob Smetana, and John Wray had to be hired to take the oars for them. If it hadn't been for Mrs. Klinger and Mr. Miller, as co-captains, and Carol Agnew, as president cracking the whip, they would have run aground that year.

By the time they had left port, starting the eleventh season, two new firemen, Rex Asten and Ella Kelling, had been signed on board. A rather peaceful trip was expected until one day when Bill Kolodey, the navigator, while up in the crow's nest looking for whales, sighted their long-lost (and pretty well water-logged) companion, Bob Uhle. By means of real (not artificial, nothing but the best) respiration, he was revived in time to take part in the great stage production "Tattletale". He was also well enough to attend the Junior-Senior Prom held in Port Cleveland at the Masonic Temple.

Realizing what a good job she had done in the tenth grade, the crew re-elected Carol Agnew to be captain and then promoted her to the rank of admiral. Under the extremely capable supervision of Miss Harding, the ship really began to operate on a profitable basis. The main attraction which had people beating a path to their gangplank were the very successful "Club 50" dances.

One of the highlights of the final docking ceremonies of the "O.F.H.S. CLUB 50" was the prom given by the rival shipping line "51". But the climax of their expedition in erudition was the graduation ceremony which took place on Friday, June 2, 1950, in the Olmsted Falls High School Auditorium. There they met for the last time as a crew before each member set out to form his own company for the purpose of seeking his own goal in life.

Junior Play "Tattletale"

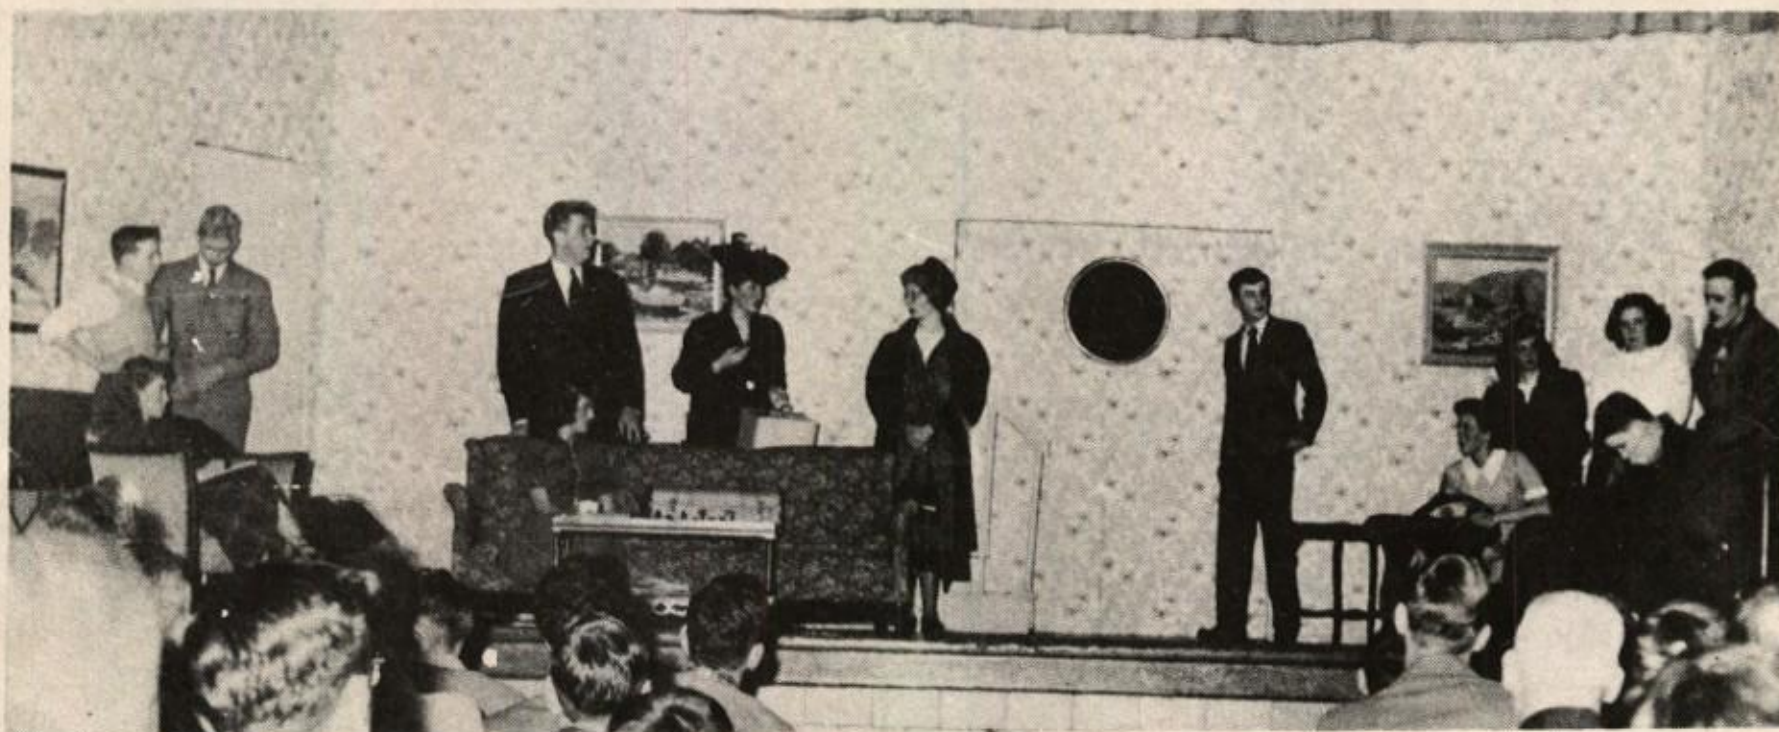

Tattletale, a comedy in three acts, was presented February 5, 1949.
The cast was as follows:

Patty	the tattletale	Carol Mc Rae
Mrs. Blaine	her mother	Shirley Canant
Mr. Blaine	her father	Jim Moses
Isabel	her older sister	Jean Schreiber
Artie	her younger brother	Dale Riedel
Ida May	her girl friend	Pat Ward
Tod	her boy friend	Bud Burchard
Paul Cummings	a young editor	Bill Hall
Mr. Nixon	the high school principal	Don Floreske
Mrs. Nixon	his wife	Nancy Woodman
Miss Wiggam	a teacher	Ann Schmied
Walt Kennedy	a detective	Allan Guenther
Louella		Carol Jones

Students	from the high school	class members
Mr. Whittaker	president of the board	Chuck Nagy
Mr. Bixley	a business man	Bob Uhle
Hetty Heaton	of the radio	Anita Pretko
Quiz	a reporter	Mary Lou Campbell

Tod "borrowed" a typewriter so Patty could finish her novel that was to be published in the daily newspaper. Because of a not so merry mix-up, Patty's diary was submitted and published instead of her novel.

For a while everything went wrong - the principal discovered the typewriter was missing, the town was in a dither, and just everything!

However, all ended well and the needed improvements in the town were acquired.

Senior

Play

"Who Wouldn't Be Crazy"

We presented "Who Wouldn't Be Crazy" on April 14, 1950. The action took place in the Good Samaritan Sanitarium near New York City. Bob "Speedy" Uhle takes refuge from the police in the Sanitarium, where he is confronted by jewel thieves, "looneyticks," and a kidnapping. The play is topped off by two delightful romances.
